Braun Electronic Components, LLC is a no nonsense, hardworking and reliable resource for helping patch holes in supply chains. We focus on procuring difficult parts that are either obsolete or have long lead times, in addition to reducing costs on full bills of material.

CORE COMPETENCIES

- ✓ Identify and supply verified authentic components that are obsolete and hard to find for our customer's production and repairs.

ADVANTAGES

- ✓ Braun's management team has been in the industry since the late 1990s and has created a trusted network of partners around the globe.
- ✓ Braun protects their clients from unscrupulous vendors and potentially faulty components by procuring through these trusted channels and doing internal and third party testing.
- ✓ Braun's mission is to be a solution provider for our clients through dedicated and top-notch service with clear, straightforward communication.
